

PROCTORIAN

THE PROCTORIAN FOR 1959

Proctor High School

Proctor, Vermont

Volume Sixteen

Dedicated to . . .

Theodore Pentkowski

A boy who loved sports, Teddy was the stuff that champions are made of. His very name became, for his schoolmates, synonymous with good sportsmanship. A champ in every way, Teddy had all the qualities of the true athlete, and what is often even more important, the other attributes of courage, dependability, intelligence and leadership.

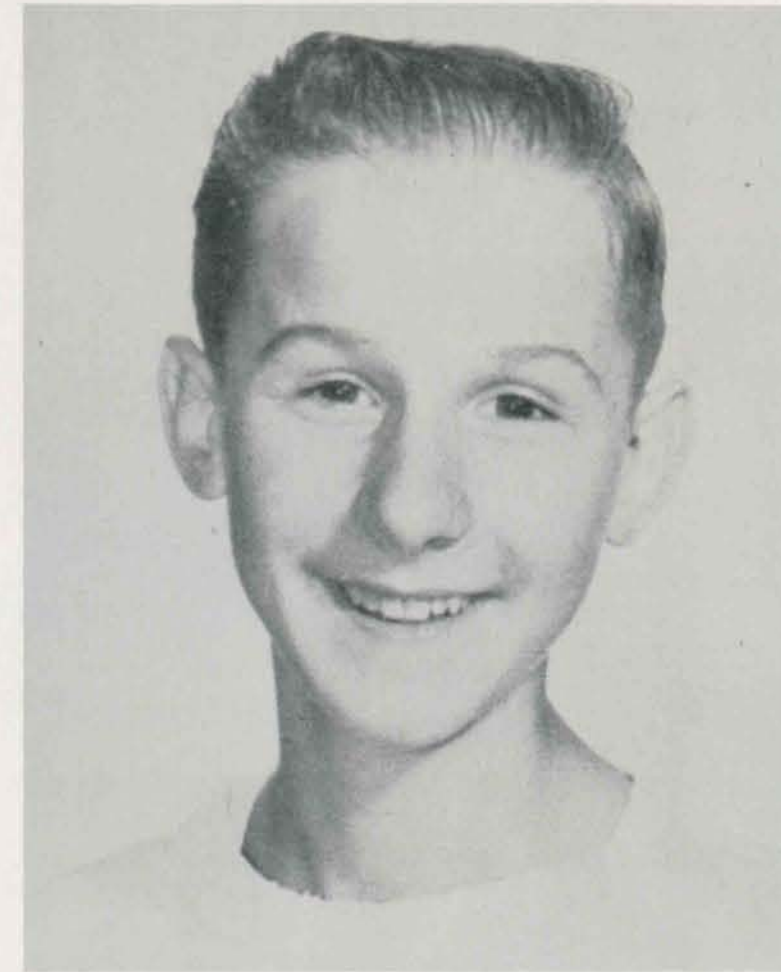

Teddy was a good church-goer, a conscientious student, and a loyal friend, one of the best natured, most likeable boys in school. He had everything - good looks, popularity, and three letters in sports - everything that might have made a lesser boy conceited. Not Teddy.

Now Teddy has won his final victory and we shall ever be grateful to him for teaching us all - how to play the game.

For these, and for endless other reasons, we humbly dedicate our yearbook to the memory of Theodore Pentkowski.

the memories of

John Petrulenicz

We called him Peppy. The little guy fairly bursting with energy, with a face at once mischievous and angelic. Yes, he was just a little guy, but what a warmth of soul, what a blithe spirit was his!

Peppy had friends, friends and more friends. This could be due to his great gift of laughter. No matter how glum and gloomy you felt, Peppy could make you laugh. When he had succeeded in making you laugh, he'd throw back his arms, shake his head and enjoy a good laugh himself.

We'll always remember many other little things about him - his unruly hair that couldn't decide on which side of the part to rest; the little chuckle which preceded each prank and the little guffaw that followed it; his irresistible friendliness; his school spirit; his love of participating in skits and plays; and most of all, his enthusiasm for sports.

For these, and for an endless list of reasons, we humbly dedicate our yearbook to the memory of John Petrulenicz.

Foreword

Many times has this book been issued as a tribute of loyalty and fidelity to Proctor High School and to all those who have gone before us. That this volume may find its place among its predecessors is our fondest hope.

As our high school days draw to a close we have spent many hours, and much effort, planning how best to tell the story of life and accomplishment during another year at Proctor High School. While depicting many of the activities incident to our school life, we are well aware that it is difficult to convey in this manner the real purpose of our school days. We trust that we have not lost sight of our main goal.

So, with the hope that in years to come it will help to keep fresh the pleasures and friendships which we have experienced, we take pleasure in presenting the Proctorian for 1959.

The Class of 1959

Here we (most of us) are back in '47 in first grade. Young and innocent, weren't we?

Then . . .

Here we are again twelve years later in 1959. Don't really think we've changed too much, do you?

and Now . . .

Classes

Juniors

Mr. Kennedy points out French places of interest to Susan Northop, Carlene Nichols, Pat Lendway, Norm Roy and Sara Moody.

Diana Burgess, Muriel Dwyer, Nancy Horton, Lorraine Lynn, and Betty Jean Erickson study on American History map.

The proud officers of the Junior Class: Bill Allard, Larry Fredette, Pat Landon and Florence Gatti.

Mr. Quinlan explains a physics experiment to R. Clarino, J. L. Herault, N. Russell, B. Trinci.

Sophomores

Discussing a biology experiment are J. M. Maki, C. Austin, H. Tillberg, H. Janoski, J. Hance, and E. Kamuda.

G. Brown, B. Ashley, J. Tiber, S. La Penna, P. Navari, J. Capen, and J. Manfredi are busy studying an assignment.

Class officers, N. Candon, P. Rafferty, J. Curtis, and N. Principe, conduct a class meeting.

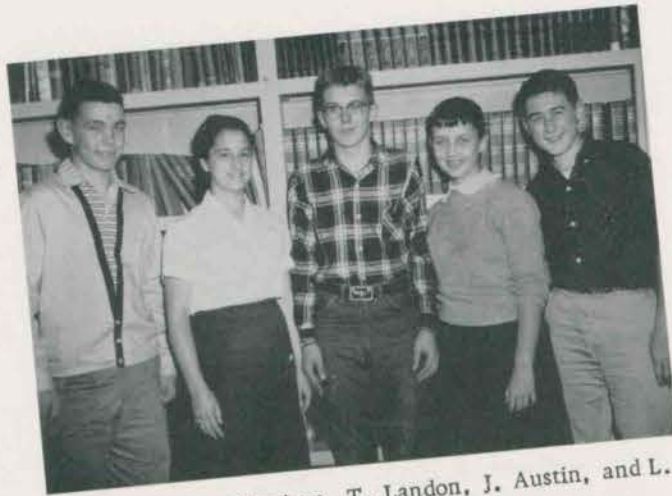

Miss Willett instructs J. Belisle, N. Bowman, L. Orvis, M. Burgess, J. Mattsson, H. Kabastura and B. Loso in a bookkeeping class.

Mrs. Murphy gives a Latin assignment to M. Curtis, L. Buehl, H. Moody, B. Olson, C. Stagg and J. Rogers.

Freshmen

T. Wener, P. Morrison, T. Landon, J. Austin, and L. Illinski look up an assignment in the library.

B. Mortenson, R. Tillberg, N. Curtis, D. Thompson, and C. Gatti are among the freshman Civics students.

Smiling prettily are the freshman class officers: M. Fregosi, R. Senecal, J. Austin and M. Principe.

Mr. Quinlan, G. Mutti, B. Carrington, T. Paul, E. Anderson and J. Duprey take time out from algebra to pose for our camera.

Eighth Grade

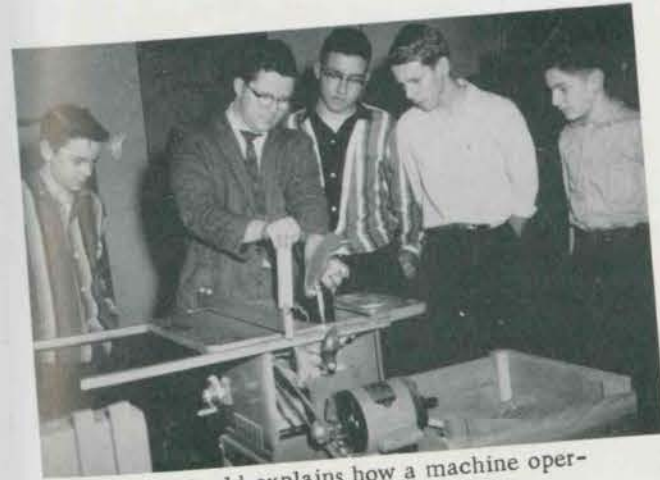

Mrs. Lofquist shows P. Frappier, J. Ratti, B. Navari, S. Symerski, K. Sheehy, J. Kapitan, and B. Landon how to take 10% of 75.

T. Dawson, L. Sanderson, S. Steele, H. Hance and I. Grochot look for Vermont on the geography map.

The eighth grade officers, S. Tarnovich, J. Stevenson, and M. Capman discuss money making projects. (Missing from picture, President Peter Freeborn.)

Mr. Gould explains how a machine operates to H. Korkisko, J. Anderson, B. Champine and D. Harrington.

L. Bauer, T. Parker, R. McKensie, D. Dahlin, and A. Hamilton visit the new library.

Seventh Grade

L. LaValley, D. Gollstrom, J. Romano, D. Wenta, K. DeMarco, M. Treanor, R. Curtis and G. Baccei try a scientific experiment.

B. Kallio, H. Loso, C. Allard, C. Roy, A. Lebo, L. Durkee, E. May, J. Hurhula, L. McCullough take time out of English class to pose for a picture.

The first officers for the class of '64 are R. Pentowski, C. Ojala, J. Haley and J. Curtis.

M. Navari, Z. Zsido, B. Northrop, M. Burns, C. Curtis, L. Whitney, L. Tonelli and M. J. Erickson eat a breakfast they prepared in Home Economics.

B. Ladabouche, T. Champine, J. Bruce, S. Frank, M. Symerski, B. Moran, E. McCullough, and M. Lebo work in the school shop.

Katie, the cook (Claudia Canning) offers some of her homemade fudge to Fred (Ed Fregosi) and Grandpa (Jack Pulsipher).

The Cast, and Mr. Kennedy, take time out to pose - 1904 style. (Miss Streicher and Jack Pulsipher.)

Lucille Pentard, "The Menace from Georgia," (Noreen Canapa) makes eyes at Lon (Joe L'Herault), and John (Mickey Mutti), while Ida (Mary Haley), glares.

Senior Play "Meet Me in St. Louis"

"They ought to ride you out of town on a rail," yells the conductor, (David Varga) as he throws the dummy with which the youngest Smith daughter just derailed his trolley.

December 4th found the entire senior class in a state of nervous shock. It was the night of our senior play, "Meet Me In St. Louis," a comedy which took place in 1904 at the start of the St. Louis World's Fair. We all enjoyed presenting the play, and it being one of the highlights of our high school years, will certainly go down in our book of memories.

Mr. Dodge (Charles Johnson), gets his leg bitten by Agnes (Cheryl Gallus), as Mr. and Mrs. Smith (Joe Marfuggi and Olivia Tucker) and Rose (Lila Tillberg) look on, horrified.

Special thanks goes to Mr. Robert Kennedy, our director, for his patience and fortitude through it all.

Shown here are the Student Council representatives of each class. The purpose of this group is to create a greater sense of student responsibility and co-operation, to unify all student organizations under one governing body and to promote the general welfare of our school.

The newly formed French Club or the "Cercle Francais," comprised of the third year French class, with Mr. Kennedy as advisor, has learned much about France and its people. Meeting are held once a month and only "Francais" is spoken. Here the members, Noreen Canapa, Charles Johnson, Lila Tillberg, Cheryl Gallus, Mary Collin, Sue Streicher, Dynan Candon, Mary Haley, and Mr. Kennedy pose for their picture.

One of the Student Council's projects this year was the organization of the Redfield Proctor Chapter of the National Honor Society. Shown below are the charter members and Mr. Belding. The members are chosen on the basis of scholarship and character.

Between classes the P.H.S. Monitor Squad keeps traffic moving in an orderly manner. Everyone on the squad is proud to be a member, knowing the school appreciates it. The squad is composed of Mary Haley, Sue Northrop, Carlene Nichols, Sara Moody, Noreen Canapa, Joe Marfuggi, Joe L'Herault, Bill Allard, Mickey Mutti and Charles Johnson.

The literary and feature staffs get to work writing and collecting paper material.

Class reporters are kept busy collecting all the class news for the next deadline.

The feature and copy staffs had the rough job of laying out the yearbook pages, measuring and figuring so that all the pictures and writing would fit.

The sports editors worked hard in planning the athletic section.

In our Sutherland, all the "literary genius" of P.H.S. comes to light. The staff and advisor work hard in putting out the five issues a year, but everyone agrees that their efforts are all worthwhile.

Assistant Editor, N. Russel, Mrs. Murphy, and Editor, C. Gallus discuss ideas for the coming issues.

The Sutherland

The exchange, alumni, news and sports editors get together and plan their sections for the paper.

Taking time out from their figuring and calculating are the members of the business staff.

Our sponsors and yearbook advisors, Mr. Stevens and Mr. Quinlan, are shown re-checking the list of advertisers.

The Proctorian

Congratulations to the business and circulation staffs for getting so many ads and subscriptions. They did a fine job.

*Keep up the good work!
J. E. Stevens*

Much credit goes to our typists who typed up all our material. In addition to their Proctorian duties, these three also do Sutherland typing.

Glee Club

The music department adds much to our school. The Christmas and spring concerts are two big events of the school year in which the students look forward to participating. Our Director, Mrs. DeBarge, does a great job.

Memories AMade of This

We'd like to take this space to say "thank you" to Mrs. Nelson and Mrs. Curtis for all the wonderful hot lunches this year.

The Assembly Committee, comprised of members from each class, plans our assemblies. This year we have had many interesting speakers and fine programs.

These are some of the many memories of high school that our class has; parties, dances, decorating, Roman Banquets and graduation, to mention just a few.

Of course, after the dances and plays are over comes the cleaning up and we know we can always count on Almo to lend a helping hand.

The Freshman Reception was always fund - that is, when WE were the seniors!

1956

Junior One-Act Plays

1957

The Junior One-Act Play Contests have given our class much fun and good times during high school. None of us will ever forget "Now that April's Here," our freshman play, "The Devil and Miss Appleby," our sophomore production, and our first prize-winning "Murder, They Say," presented in our junior year.

Athletics

Soccer

Remember how linemen Bunny Olson, Bill Allard, Mickey Mutti, Norm Roy, and Jolly Rogers brought the ball down the field last season to score many goals?

Dave Varga and Joe L'Herault played fullback for the season and did very well, too.

Goalie, Ed Fregosi, also did a great job. He often discouraged the opposing team by stopping their possible goals.

Here is part of the defensive unit. Buster Fredette, Dynan Candon, Lee Orvis, and Charles Johnson played well to help Proctor High win its second consecutive Marble Valley League Championship.

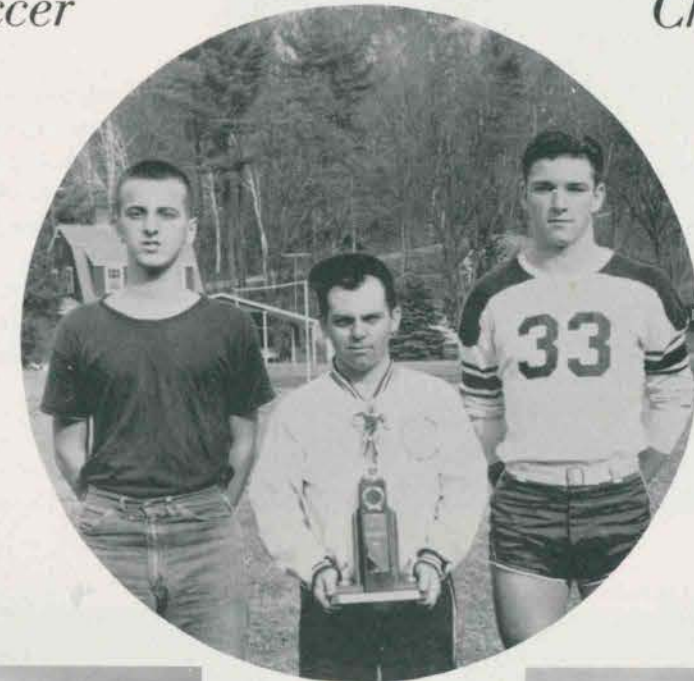

For the second year in a row, P.H.S. is the soccer champ of the Marble Valley League, and our victorious players pose for their picture. Pretty good looking bunch of boys, don't you think?

Basketball 1958-1959

This year's basketball team was one of which the school was extremely proud. The boys played very hard and very well and were often complimented by other schools for their fine display of sportsmanship. The team's record for the season was sixteen wins while losing only four. The regular team was ably assisted by Buster Fredette, Nick Principe and Pete Navari.

Proctor earned second place in the M.V.L. and also gained entrance into the Southern Vermont Class "M" Tournament via a play-off. The Phantoms were runners-up in this tourney, losing to St. Michael's of Brattleboro.

The picture to the right shows the team's scorekeeper, Joe Marfuggi; statistician, Mary Haley; and the very efficient manager, Jack Pulsipher.

Varsity

Proctor has always been proud of its cheerleaders. They symbolize the good sportsmanship and school spirit of P.H.S. When the team takes the floor after the cheerleaders have led "The Phantom Yell," they know that win or lose, the whole school is right in there rooting for them.

Varsity Cheerleaders, M. Collin, P. Landon, N. Horton, N. Canapa, P. Lendway, and B. Erickson practice a difficult jump.

Junior Varsity

Our J.V. Cheerleaders do a great job of cheering their team on to victory. Here they pose for our camera. F. Gatti, H. Kabasura, N. Candon, M. Principe, C. Stagg, and J. Maki.

Mr. Leamy, coach of our J.V.'s, looks pretty proud and we don't blame him. They had a fine team this year.

Here's our baseball team looking forward to a successful season this spring. They do look pretty confident.

THE MARBLE SAVINGS BANK

A group of happy seniors leave school after the final deadline for the yearbook has been completed.

In Appreciation

We, the class of 1959, gratefully extend our sincerest appreciation to all who helped make this yearbook possible: to our advertisers, to whom we are indebted; to our photographers, who helped us present the story of our high school career.

Words cannot express our sincere appreciation to our advisors, Mr. Bernard Quinlan and Mr. G. Elliott Stevens, without whose untiring efforts our senior year would not have been a success.

Their enthusiasm has inspired us and kept up our spirit through many discouraging moments; so we would like to say a very sincere "thank you" to both of them.
